Owlets Autumn 2 Curriculum Overview 2017 – Halloween/Bonfire Night, Space & Christmas

Facus Hakewar/Bonfine Night Space Space Space Space Space Obstance Key Events Totes - School Photos Totes - School Photos Totes - School Photos Totes - Mass Church out Read Safety Week Totes - School Photos Totes - Mass Church out Totes - Mass Church out Read Safety Week Totes - School Photos Totes - Mass Church out Read Safety Week Totes - Mass Church out Totes - Mass Church out Totes - School Photos Totes - School Photos Totes - School Photos Totes - Mass Church out Totes - Mass Church out Totes - School Photos Totes - School Photos Totes - Mass Church out Totes - Mass Church out Totes - Mass Church out Totes - School Photos Totes - Mass Church out Totes - School Photos Totes - Mass Church out Totes - School Photos Totes - Mass Church out Totes - School Photos Totes - Mass Church out <th></th> <th>30.10.2017</th> <th>06.11.2017</th> <th>13.11.2017</th> <th>20.11.2017 Week 10</th> <th>27.11.2017</th> <th>04.12.2017</th> <th>11.12.2017 Week 13</th>		30.10.2017	06.11.2017	13.11.2017	20.11.2017 Week 10	27.11.2017	04.12.2017	11.12.2017 Week 13
Key Events Tues - School Photos Tues - School Photos Tues - School Photos Tues - School Photos Tues - Flu Immunisation Tues - Miss Church out Read Safety Week Tues - Flu Immunisation Tues/Weid-Xim Tues/Weid-Xim Tues/Weid-Xim geograps Free-flow choosing time within a planned Early Years Environment provides children with opportunities to develop self-confidence, their sense of self and begin to make estat friendships within their class group. Children will make independent choices about their learning by carefully selecting resources both on their own and with others, which will them to use and apply their knowledge of the world around them, subsequently leading to a greater level of understanding. Children will converse with one another, negotiate turns, learn about each other's feelings and begin to understand how their actions can affect these. • Task Partners privide regular opportunities for children to converse, discuss and peer assess their learning • Free-flow choosing time provides adult modeling and substantial time to support individual's needs • • Task Partners privide regular opportunities on development through activities/resources such as: trim trail, bikes and socoters, mud kitchen, stage, den building, large scale construction resources • Meekly Physical Education leasons planned and taught by Mrs House (HLTA) Unddoor Environment supporting gross motor development through activities/resources such as: trim trail, bikes and socoters, mud kitchen, stage, den building, large scale construction resources Sensory/Fline Motor Tray provides children with opportunities to develop muscle tone, develop hand-eye coordination an	Focus
Vici Print - Open Day								Tues/Wed – Xmas Play
Provide and provides and provides and provides children with opportunities to develop self-confidence, their sense of self and begin to make estate friendships within their class group. Children will make independent choices about their learning by carefully selecting resources both on their own and with others, which will them to use and apply their knowledge of the world around them, subsequently leading to a greater level of understanding. Children will converse with one another, negotiate turns, learn about each other's feelings and begin to understand how their actions can affect these. • Talk Partners provide regular opportunities for children to converse, discuss and peer assess their learning • Talk Partners provide regular opportunities for children to converse, discuss and peer assess their learning • Weekly Spanish leasons planned and taught by Mrs Hamilton (MFL Teacher) • Small group learning provides adult modeling and substantial time to support individual's needs • Daily phonics teaching, including the introduction and discussion of new vocabulary Ideas could include: Role play rocket cockpit, Small world moon scene (sand/dust, egg boxes, astronauts, glitter/sequins, rocks) Weekly Physical Education lessons planned and taught by Mrs House (HLTA) Outdoor Environment supporting gross motor development through activities/resources such as: trim trail, bikes and scooters, mud kitchen, stage, den building, large scale construction resources Sensory/Fine Motor Tray provides children with opportunities to develop muscle tone, develop hand-eye coordination and experience and explore different textures lease and eaguins stars Phonice - Obscrete phonics teaching Tuesday-Friday. Opportunities to apply phon	•							Thurs/Fri – Carol Service
Note of the second include: Release and the se		Fri – Open Day
Prove the second s	nt al cial	Free-flow choosing time within a planned Early Years Environment provides children with opportunities to develop self-confidence, their sense of self and begin to make established
Prove the second s	Personal, So and Emotior Developme	friendships within their class group. Children will make independent choices about their learning by carefully selecting resources both on their own and with others, which will enable Prove the second s		them to use and apply their knowledge of the world around them, subsequently leading to a greater level of understanding. Children will converse with one another, negotiate, take
 Free-flow choosing time promotes an expanse of communication – listening, talking, responding, understanding Weekly Spanish lessons planned and taught by Mrs Hamilton (MFL Teacher) Small group learning provides adult modeling and substantial time to support individual's needs Daily phonics teaching, including the introduction and discussion of new vocabulary Ideas could include: Role play rocket cockpit, Small world moon scene (sand/dust, egg boxes, astronauts, glitter/sequins, rocks) Weekly Physical Education lessons planned and taught by Mrs House (HLTA) Outdoor Environment supporting gross motor development through activities/resources such as: trim trail, bikes and scooters, mud kitchen, stage, den building, large scale construction resources Sensory/Fine Motor Tray provides children with opportunities to develop muscle tone, develop hand-eye coordination and experience and explore different textures lease could include: writing in glitter, moon rocks made from foil balls, space sand, moon dust (flour), night sky sensory tray (black rice with star sequins), black fabric with pelpanets and sequins stars Phonics - Discrete phonis teaching Tuesday-Friday. Opportunities to apply phonological understanding on Monday during Big Write and through regular 1:1 reeding Phonics is taught in line with Letters and Sounds, although aspects of other schemes are used such as the Read Write Inc formation rhymes Weekly BIG Write provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Cold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children. 		turns, learn about each other's feelings and begin to understand how their actions can affect these.
Toggger • Weekly Spanish lessons planned and taught by Mrs Hamilton (MFL Teacher) • Small group learning provides adult modeling and substantial time to support individual's needs • Daily phonics teaching, including the introduction and discussion of new vocabulary Ideas could include: Role play rocket cockpit, Small world moon scene (sand/dust, egg boxes, astronauts, glitter/sequins, rocks) Weekly Physical Education lessons planned and taught by Mrs House (HLTA) Outdoor Environment supporting gross motor development through activities/resources such as: trim trail, bikes and scooters, mud kitchen, stage, den building, large scale construction resources Sensory/Fine Motor Tray provides children with opportunities to develop muscle tone, develop hand-eye coordination and experience and explore different textures Ideas could include: writing in glitter, moon rocks made from foil balls, space sand, moon dust (flour), night sky sensory tray (black rice with star sequins), black fabric with pelpanets and sequins stars Phonics is taught in line with Letters and Sounds, although aspects of other schemes are used such as the Read Write Inc formation rhymes Weekly BIG Write provides a routine opportunity for children to tauk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Cald Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.	communication and Language	Talk Partners provide regular opportunities for children to converse, discuss and peer assess their learning
Ideas could include: Role play rocket cockpit, Small world moon scene (sand/dust, egg boxes, astronauts, glitter/sequins, rocks) Weekly Physical Education lessons planned and taught by Mrs House (HLTA) Outdoor Environment supporting gross motor development through activities/resources such as: trim trail, bikes and scooters, mud kitchen, stage, den building, large scale construction resources Sensory/Fine Motor Tray provides children with opportunities to develop muscle tone, develop hand-eye coordination and experience and explore different textures ldeas could include: writing in glitter, moon rocks made from foil balls, space sand, moon dust (flour), night sky sensory tray (black rice with star sequins), black fabric with pel planets and sequins stars Phonics - Discrete phonics teaching Tuesday-Friday. Opportunities to apply phonological understanding on Monday during Big Write and through regular 1:1 reading Phonics is taught in line with Letters and Sounds, although aspects of other schemes are used such as the Read Write Inc formation rhymes Weekly Big Write provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.		Free-flow choosing time promotes an expanse of communication – listening, talking, responding, understanding
Ideas could include: Role play rocket cockpit, Small world moon scene (sand/dust, egg boxes, astronauts, glitter/sequins, rocks) Weekly Physical Education lessons planned and taught by Mrs House (HLTA) Outdoor Environment supporting gross motor development through activities/resources such as: trim trail, bikes and scooters, mud kitchen, stage, den building, large scale construction resources Sensory/Fine Motor Tray provides children with opportunities to develop muscle tone, develop hand-eye coordination and experience and explore different textures ldeas could include: writing in glitter, moon rocks made from foil balls, space sand, moon dust (flour), night sky sensory tray (black rice with star sequins), black fabric with pel planets and sequins stars Phonics - Discrete phonics teaching Tuesday-Friday. Opportunities to apply phonological understanding on Monday during Big Write and through regular 1:1 reading Phonics is taught in line with Letters and Sounds, although aspects of other schemes are used such as the Read Write Inc formation rhymes Weekly Big Write provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.		Weekly Spanish lessons planned and taught by Mrs Hamilton (MFL Teacher)
Ideas could include: Role play rocket cockpit, Small world moon scene (sand/dust, egg boxes, astronauts, glitter/sequins, rocks) Weekly Physical Education lessons planned and taught by Mrs House (HLTA) Outdoor Environment supporting gross motor development through activities/resources such as: trim trail, bikes and scooters, mud kitchen, stage, den building, large scale construction resources Sensory/Fine Motor Tray provides children with opportunities to develop muscle tone, develop hand-eye coordination and experience and explore different textures ldeas could include: writing in glitter, moon rocks made from foil balls, space sand, moon dust (flour), night sky sensory tray (black rice with star sequins), black fabric with pel planets and sequins stars Phonics - Discrete phonics teaching Tuesday-Friday. Opportunities to apply phonological understanding on Monday during Big Write and through regular 1:1 reading Phonics is taught in line with Letters and Sounds, although aspects of other schemes are used such as the Read Write Inc formation rhymes Weekly Big Write provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.		Small group learning provides adult modeling and substantial time to support individual's needs
Ideas could include: Role play rocket cockpit, Small world moon scene (sand/dust, egg boxes, astronauts, glitter/sequins, rocks) Weekly Physical Education lessons planned and taught by Mrs House (HLTA) Outdoor Environment supporting gross motor development through activities/resources such as: trim trail, bikes and scooters, mud kitchen, stage, den building, large scale construction resources Sensory/Fine Motor Tray provides children with opportunities to develop muscle tone, develop hand-eye coordination and experience and explore different textures ldeas could include: writing in glitter, moon rocks made from foil balls, space sand, moon dust (flour), night sky sensory tray (black rice with star sequins), black fabric with pel planets and sequins stars Phonics - Discrete phonics teaching Tuesday-Friday. Opportunities to apply phonological understanding on Monday during Big Write and through regular 1:1 reading Phonics is taught in line with Letters and Sounds, although aspects of other schemes are used such as the Read Write Inc formation rhymes Weekly Big Write provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.		Daily phonics teaching, including the introduction and discussion of new vocabulary
Outdoor Environment supporting gross motor development through activities/resources such as: trim trail, bikes and scooters, mud kitchen, stage, den building, large scale construction resources Sensory/Fine Motor Tray provides children with opportunities to develop muscle tone, develop hand-eye coordination and experience and explore different textures Ideas could include: writing in glitter, moon rocks made from foil balls, space sand, moon dust (flour), night sky sensory tray (black rice with star sequins), black fabric with per planets and sequins stars Phonics – Discrete phonics teaching Tuesday-Friday. Opportunities to apply phonological understanding on Monday during Big Write and through regular 1:1 reading Phonics is taught in line with Letters and Sounds, although aspects of other schemes are used such as the Read Write Inc formation rhymes Weekly BIG Write provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.	 	Ideas could include: Role play rocket cockpit, Small world moon scene (sand/dust, egg boxes, astronauts, glitter/sequins, rocks)
planets and sequins stars provide provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.	÷	Weekly Physical Education lessons planned and taught by Mrs House (HLTA)
planets and sequins stars provide provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.	men	Outdoor Environment supporting gross mater development through activities/resources such as trim trail bikes and espeters mud kitchen, store, der building large sade
planets and sequins stars provide provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.	relop
planets and sequins stars provide provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.	De
planets and sequins stars provide provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.	sical	Sensory/Fine Motor Tray provides children with opportunities to develop muscle tone, develop hand-eye coordination and experience and explore different textures
Phonics – Discrete phonics teaching Tuesday-Friday. Opportunities to apply phonological understanding on Monday during Big Write and through regular 1:1 reading Phonics is taught in line with Letters and Sounds, although aspects of other schemes are used such as the Read Write Inc formation rhymes Weekly BIG Write provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.	Phy	Ideas could include: writing in glitter, moon rocks made from foil balls, space sand, moon dust (flour), night sky sensory tray (black rice with star sequins), black fabric with pebble
Phonics is taught in line with Letters and Sounds, although aspects of other schemes are used such as the Read Write Inc formation rhymes Weekly BIG Write provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.		planets and sequins stars
Weekly BIG Write provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.	iteracy g and Writing)	Phonics – Discrete phonics teaching Tuesday-Friday. Opportunities to apply phonological understanding on Monday during Big Write and through regular 1:1 reading
Weekly BIG Write provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness. Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children. Daily Story Telling promoting a love of reading/stories and broadening the range of books that children enjoy		Phonics is taught in line with Letters and Sounds, although aspects of other schemes are used such as the Read Write Inc formation rhymes
Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday. Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children. Daily Story Telling promoting a love of reading/stories and broadening the range of books that children enjoy		Weekly BIG Write provides a routine opportunity for children to develop their writing skills as well as apply and use their phonological understanding and awareness.
Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children. Daily Story Telling promoting a love of reading/stories and broadening the range of books that children enjoy		Talk Homework is issued on a Friday – a discussion point/topic for children to talk about at home with their family in preparation for Big Write on Monday.
Daily Story Telling promoting a love of reading/stories and broadening the range of books that children enjoy	L eadin	Gold Write is introduced later in the year as a half termly/termly assessment tool; whichever is felt best appropriate for the cohort of children.
	R)	Daily Story Telling promoting a love of reading/stories and broadening the range of books that children enjoy

	Possible Texts –	Possible Texts – The Wa	ay Back Home, How to Cat	tch a Star – Oliver Jeffers	, First Big Book of Space,	Christmas cards	End of term
	Pumpkin Soup, Room	Whatever Next – Jill Mur	phy, Aliens Love Underpa	The Christmas story	assessments on the Broom, Winnie	Ideas could include: Writ	ting a list of items to pack t the Witch	words, make a space bo	ook, design a planet – what Mathematics	1:1 Correspondence	Counting	More, less or the same	2D shapes	2D shapes		End of term
(Number and	Counting	Name rockets – how	- comparing numbers	Shape rockets			assessments
Shape, space	Making number	many letters are in	and groups and measures)	potions – counting out	your name?	Big and small numbers
	Halloween ingredients	Space clip cards – pegging onto number corresponding to pictures
Understanding	MFL - Spanish	MFL - Spanish	MFL - Spanish	MFL - Spanish	MFL - Spanish	MFL - Spanish	MFL - Spanish
the World (including	Celebration	All	Science	Science	History/Science	Celebration/RE	Celebration/RE Technology)	Halloween	What do I know about	The Planets	Surviving in space –	Neil Armstrong – first	Christmas	Christmas space? What would I	The moon and the	prepare for a space	man on the moon
	History	like to learn about	stars - constellations	mission!	Tim Peake –
	The Gunpowder Plot	space? Child-led	The sun – describe it!	Astronaut food	International Space
	Guy Fawkes WANTED	planning activity	What does Earth look	Pack a bag to go to	Station poster	History	like from space?	space Remembrance
Expressive Arts	Art	Ideas could include:				Christmas Play	rehearsals and show and Design	Paper plate pumpkins	Stained glass E	Earth sun catchers	Christmas songs and carols
	Firework art	Playdough alier	าร	Making Christmas cards
		Junk modelling	space buggy	Christmas art
		Cardboard box	wrapped in foil robots
		Galaxy playdou	igh – black with silver sequ
		Paper plate flyi	ng saucers
		Make astronaut	ts with photos of the childre Cardboard tube	e rockets sequins/glitter to hang are e men in a flying saucer Making telesco					