Who is your hero?

Choose someone you would call a hero. Draw the person and label them, explaining why you think they are a hero. It could be someone you know, or a famous person such as David Beckham or J.K.Rowling.

- Draw a picture of the person, using labels.
- Explain why you think this person is a hero.
- Challenge: Can you find out any interesting facts about your hero?

My number factfile

What numbers are important to you? For example, your age, or your house number, or maybe the number of teddies you have! Do you have a favourite number?

- Create a poster about numbers and you.
- Take care with writing any numbers.
- Challenge: Are there any additions or subtractions you can do to find your numbers?

"A superhero came to school one day..." story

Imagine a superhero joined us in the Snowy Owls! Write what would happen next. Would the superhero change our school somehow with their super powers?

- Write in full sentences.
- Take care with your letters.
- Challenge: try to remember full stops and capital letters!

Superhero wardrobe

Imagine you are creating a brand new superhero! You need to plan the outfit and accessories - what could your superhero wear and need?

- Draw and colour the items of clothes and label them.
- What are your key accessories? Draw, colour and label these.
- Challenge: Does your superhero require different clothing for different occasions? Write and draw the outfits.
