

Weekly Newsletter 15th November 2018

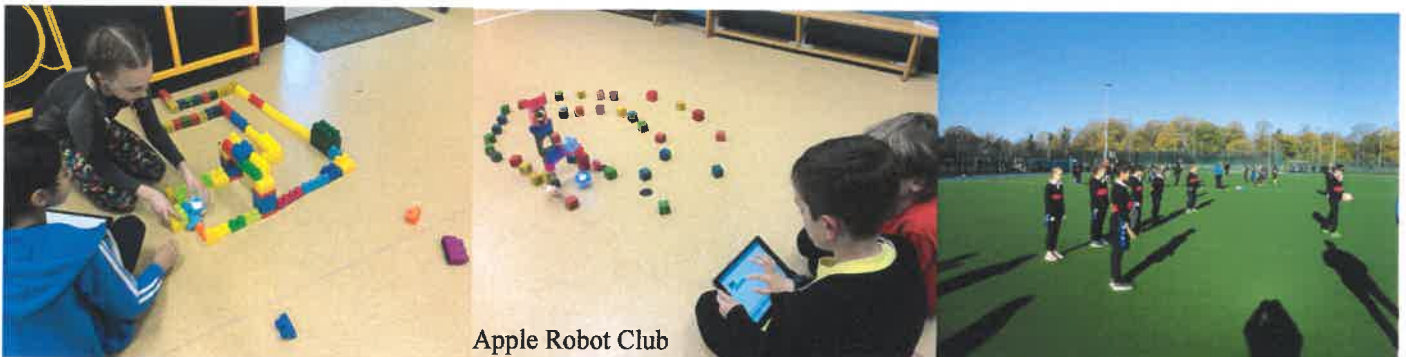

Dear Parents,

The whole school enjoyed an afternoon making poppies from the plastic bottle bottoms, as part of our work on Remembrance Day. There is now an excellent display of the work up in school, and we observed a two-minute silence after playtime.

On Monday, we received a visit from Helen Lamb who spoke in assembly. She is part of the Buckingham Emergency Food Appeal. This charity organises collections of sugar to help with providing a Christmas meal for the homeless in Norwich. We have supported this charity before, and if you wish to help then please bring in a bag of sugar- ideally Silver Spoon. They will be collected on Tuesday 11th December.

On Tuesday, children from Year 5 and 6 took part in a TAG rugby competition at the UEA. They all seemed to really enjoy the day and for many it was a first opportunity to play this sport competitively. Well done to George, Jackson, Charlie, Jake, Alana, Lily, Joshua, Noah, Evie, Millie, Ella, Craig, Edith, Ethan, Evan, Blake, Louis, Dylan, Keegan, Mercedes, Leena, Cade, Emily, Daisy, and Toby, and to Mrs Davies and Mrs House for organising and taking the children.

Finally, we will be having a non-uniform day for Children in Need tomorrow. There is a suggested donation of £1 to the charity.
