

Weekly Newsletter 29th November 2018

Dear Parents,

Thank you to all of the parents who supported the Eagle Owls visit to Norwich Cathedral on Wednesday evening. Their singing was really impressive and enhanced by the amazing acoustics in the cathedral. I am sure performing there was a memorable experience for them all. Thanks also to Mrs Davies and Mrs Graves for supporting with the visit.

On Friday the Owlets enjoyed their first Stay and Play session themed around the book 'Supertato' by Sue Hendra. The children and their families had lots of fun mashing Evil Peas, making superhero masks, estimating how many sprouts had been captured by the Evil Peas and doing other 'Supertato' activities. Thank you to all the parents and grandparents who attended.

On Monday, children in Year 2 enjoyed a visit to Easton College sports hall to take part in Norwich School Sports Partnership 'Multiskills' event. They took part in a range of activities alongside children from three other schools, with good 'sportsmanship' being a particular focus. Well done to all for their excellent behaviour and attitude during the visit.

Finally, a reminder that tomorrow is Viking day for children in Eagle Owls and there is another opportunity for dressing up in authentic costume!

The recipient of this week's Head Teacher award is:
Annabel (3) Harriet (3)- Diligent computer monitors

Bring in your Children's University passports every Monday via the class baskets and these will be returned to you on Thursdays.
