

Weekly Newsletter 28th February 2019

Dear Parents,

Welcome back! I hope that you all had an enjoyable half-term break.

The Friends Talent Show on the last evening of half term was a fantastic success. Great credit to Sarah (Riley's Mum) for all the skilful work she put into organising all the different elements of the evening. There were many highlights during the evening, and the large audience were treated to a wide range of different performances, from stand-up comedy to solo dance! Well done to all of the children who took part in the event, and showed the bravery necessary to perform in front of a crowd. The overall winners on the night- which must have been very hard to choose- were Maisie (4), Alana (6), Edith (6), Morgan (5) and Isabelle (4). There is a gallery of pictures from the evening further down in the newsletter. If any parents would like a picture of just their child performing, please let me know and I will email you a copy. The event also raised over £150 for the school!

This week the whole school enjoyed a visit from Olly Day and his Road Safety Show. The children were treated to a 45-minute show highlighting key messages about keeping safe on the roads. Today, Owlets have invited parents in for their latest 'stay and play' morning. This was again well attended and both enjoyable and informative for those who could attend.

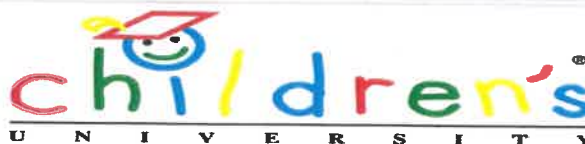

Next Monday, we will be holding our latest whole school science and technology day, with a project for children to work collaboratively on an experiment investigating the effects of friction. Please may we ask that if you have any spare brightly ceramic tiles (red, green, yellow, blue, orange), bubble wrap, woodchip, corrugated cardboard, large cardboard boxes or sheets of cardboard please could you bring them into school asap, they would be hugely appreciated for the science and technology day.

Finally a reminder that next week on Thursday we will be celebrating World Book Day with a range of activities in school, including decorating a stone. Children can come to school dressed as their favourite character from a story book.

The recipient of this week's Head Teacher award is:

Sam (4)- great attitude towards his learning

Bring in your Children's University passports every Monday via the class baskets and these will be returned to you on Thursdays.
