

Weekly Newsletter 28th March 2019

Dear Parents,

Owlets and Snowy Owls enjoyed a brilliant visit to Norwich Playhouse on Friday to see 'We're Going on a Bear Hunt'. They were very well behaved and the experience supplemented their work in school. Many thanks to the Friends for subsidising the cost of the transport.

Our Swimming team also performed very well representing the school in a 25m race gala at the UEA on Friday. They behaved brilliantly and we were very proud of them all. Well done to Dylan, Leena, Daisy, Lily, Olivia, Ella, Millie, Ethan, Joshua, Charlie, Cade and Noah.

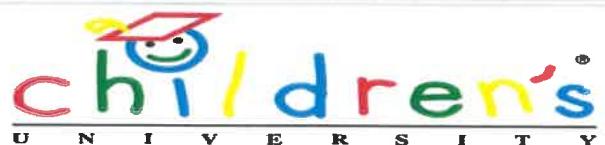

Four children from year 6 also represented the school at the Maths challenge quiz event at Norwich High School. They worked in teams of two and competed against a large number of schools from both the state and independent sector, finishing in a respectable top half position. Well done to Alana, Blake, Edith and Evan!

Finally, and again with Eagle Owls, our year 5 & 6 netball team took part in a competition on Tuesday at UEA Sportspark. The teams finished a fantastic 4th and 11th out of 18 teams. They all played really well with an excellent team spirit. Well done to Alana, Ella, Lily, Blake, Jake, Dylan, Edith, Daisy, Leena, George, Ethan and Charlie.

WE NEED YOUR HELP

May Fair - Saturday 18th May 2019

STUDENTS

Do you have older children or friends/family with older children who could help with serving on the BBQ or Face Painting? We need 6 students to help on the day - they will be paid!!

STRATFORDS SIGN

We are looking to place advertising boards in the immediate surrounding areas of Little Melton - such as Bawburgh, Marlingford, Hethersett and Earlham. Would friends of family in these areas be willing to have a board outside their property prior to the May Fair?

We will be using our new playground for gazebos and marquees BUT we need sandbags to ensure they are weighted down - can anyone supply these?
