

Weekly Newsletter 4th April 2019

Dear Parents,

Owlets enjoyed their visit to Easton College on Wednesday to participate in a multi-skills event with children from other local schools. Their behaviour was excellent. Thanks to Miss Church, Mrs Martins and Mrs Salisbury for looking after them.

On Tuesday, Mrs Davies took the school choir to sing at Carlton House residential home. This visit brightened the day for all the residents, and gave the children the chance to perform in front of an audience.

A team of children in Year 5 are currently participating in the Jaguar Formula 1 challenge. This involves putting together a design brief and making a model racing car. Today is their second test day at Sprowston Academy, ahead of the regional competition next month.

Tomorrow we will be receiving a lunchtime visit from Set Your Sights who will be running a one-off lunchtime sports club for children. Their popular holiday club will be held at Little Melton too in the holidays.

If you are thinking about Easter holiday activities, please have a look at the interesting science and design competition from Little Melton Church.

Have an excellent break!

We are delighted to welcome both Ms Catherine Lovatt and Mrs Sue Head to join our Governing Body. Catherine is a senior teacher at Wymondham College, and mother to Hal in Reception. Sue is a resident in the village with a long association with the school and an extensive career in education and with connections to Little Melton Parish Church. We are sure they will both bring considerable expertise to the team.

The recipient of this week's Head Teacher award is:

Stanley (1) - excellent work in computing

Bring in your Children's University passports every Monday via the class baskets and these will be returned to you on Thursdays.

WE NEED YOUR HELP

Do you have older children or friends/family with older children who could help with serving on the BBQ or Face Painting? We need 6 students to help on the day - they will be paid!!

STRATFORDS SIGN

We are looking to place advertising boards in the immediate surrounding areas of Little Melton - such as Bawburgh, Marlingford, Hethersett and Earlham. Would friends of family in these areas be willing to have a board outside their property prior to the May Fair?

We will be using our new playground for gazebos and marquees BUT we need sandbags to ensure they are weighted down - can anyone supply these?
