

Weekly Newsletter 3rd October 2019

Dear Parents,

Many thanks to everyone who supported our coffee and cake afternoon in honour of Macmillan Cancer Research, last Friday. It was a very enjoyable afternoon for everyone, despite the torrential rain outside (great rainbow later though!). In total, we raised £269.85 for the charity. Thank you also to Sarah Wilson for the accountancy services!

Next week the Eagle Owls football team begin their league campaign in the Norwich SSP schools competition at the UEA. They will play matches over three week nights in October and November. Good luck to Cade, Noah, Luca, Oliver, Ben, Sam, Joseph, Rylan, Keegan and Bailey.

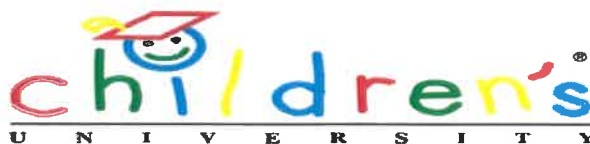

Well done to all the children who applied for one of our school monitor roles. The staff have read all of the impressive written applications, and the children will find out which jobs they have been given in Assembly on Friday. There will then be some training for them, before they officially start their roles!

Finally, a reminder that the Friends' AGM is 7.30p.m tonight at school, for anyone wanting to help support their fundraising efforts in the year ahead. The next big Friends' event will then be the 'Spooky Disco' on Friday November 1st- and they will also be holding a second-hand school uniform sale on Tuesday 15th 2:45-3:45p.m and on Friday 18th October after the Harvest Festival.

The recipient of this week's Head Teacher award is:

Harriet (4) -
great attitude towards her reading in school

Bring in your Children's University passports every
