

Weekly Newsletter 10th October 2019

Dear Parents

A great start for the Eagle Owls football team who won both of their matches in the Norwich SSP league this week. Well done to Cade, Noah, Luca, Oliver, Ben, Sam & Joseph.

Barn Owls have been enjoying their visiting music teacher - this week showing them how to play with a range of authentic African drums.

A record number of children from the school have asked and been selected to take part in next week's schools cross-country event at Earlham Park. In total 31 children from across Key Stage 2 will be competing for places in the county final later in the winter. Good luck to names Mason C, Josef, Sophie F, Sydney, Josh, William G, Thomas, Logan, Evie, Jamal, Seb, Eloise, Edward, Riley, William H, Molly B, Clementine, Kodey, Lexi, Sophie, Bailey, Emily, Erin W, Aiesha, Joseph, Oliver, Isabelle, Sam, Noah, Keegan & Cade.

A reminder that after school today Mrs Lee and Miss Church will be holding a phonics information session for parents in Year 1 and Reception- childcare is available for the duration of this.

Finally, next week is the last week before the half term break. We will be holding a Harvest Festival from 2pm on the last Friday. It is anticipated to last about 40 minutes. Children can then be collected early by parents, or of course remain in school until 3.15pm. There will also be an After School Club as usual.
