

Weekly Newsletter 7th November 2019

Dear Parents,

Thank you to everyone who supported the Friends Halloween disco on Friday evening. It was extremely well organised and managed by Sarah Wilson and her team of parent volunteers, and I know that the children really enjoyed it. They used a new DJ this time, and also provided the children with food and drink, and a special decorated biscuit to take home. The Friends are also holding their latest meeting tonight 7p.m at The Village Inn-all welcome.

Key Stage 2 children enjoyed a visit led by Josh's Dad on Monday, giving details of the exciting and innovative 'Rubbish Challenge'. This has provoked a lot of interest and excitement amongst the children - and they have all brought home full details of how to take part. If you are interested in participating, please return the forms to the school office by Monday 11th November.

Also on Monday, the children in Year 4 enjoyed a visit to the UEA to take part in a multi skills event with other schools. Well done to all of them- and congratulations on a creditable 3rd place finish overall from 10 participating schools. They also all behaved well and were excellent ambassadors for the school.

Finally, next week, we are holding parent consultations on both Tuesday and Wednesday evenings- sign-up sheets are filling up quickly in the office foyer. Also next week, on Friday, the children will be taking part in a special orienteering day in school and can attend in non-uniform (spotty theme) for Children In Need day- suggested voluntary donation £1.

Muddy Field - Spare Trousers

We are nearly reaching the stage of the year where we will have to restrict access to the field because of the mud. However, for a while at least, if your child is coming home very muddy, please feel free to let them bring in to school an old pair of tracksuit trousers or perhaps waterproof over trousers to wear just at lunchtimes. These can then be kept in school until the end of term. Purely voluntary!

Yours faithfully,

Mr A Pritchard
