

Weekly Newsletter 30th January 2020

Dear Parents,

We all enjoyed an excellent assembly from Josh's Dad on Friday as the culmination of the Ecobucks project. It was really remarkable and thought-provoking to see just how much recyclable material, otherwise destined for landfill, had been collected by a relatively small group of children in a short time span. In tomorrow's assembly we will be watching a video of what happened at the recycling centre. Many thanks to all who took part in the project- and especially Mr Smith for organising and supporting it.

There have been some other exciting visits this week too. Eagle Owls were all inspired by a talk and demonstration from Luca's Dad about his successful career as a watercolour artist. They were highly impressed by the quality of the work, and have gone on to apply some of the techniques later this week to make their own pictures too. Many thanks to Mr Kagimu for generously providing his time.

As well as this, Eagle Owls also met Posy Walton from Norwich School to begin their choral project. This culminates in a performance with other schools at Norwich Cathedral later in the spring- always a highly enjoyable evening to which all parents will be invited. It has also been nice too to see Barn Owls continue to enjoy and benefit from their ongoing project with Norfolk Music Hub using a range of African drums.

The recipient of this week's Head Teacher award is:
