

Knowledge Organiser: All about me!

ankle - the joint that connects our legs to our feet	hearing - how we listen to sounds around us with our ears	smell - we use our nose to smell different smells
elbow - the joint that connects our arm bones together	knee - the joint that connects the leg bones together	taste - what flavours we pick up with our mouth and tongue
five senses - parts of our body that tell us information about what is around us	sight - what we see with our eyes	touch - what we can feel with our skin
hip - the socket area where our legs meet our main body	shoulders - the joints that connect our arms to our body	wrist - the joint that connects our hand to our arms skeleton - the bones in a body that hold it upright

Open the door for more learning...

<https://www.bbc.com/bitesize/topics/z9gyycdm> (Bitesize KS1 Human Body)

Usborne 'Look Inside Your Body' book

'Funnybones' by Janet and Allan Ahlberg

