

Mathematics:

(Following White Rose Maths Hub)

1. Number – place value (count to 100)
2. Number – place value (comparing and ordering numbers)
3. Measurement: Money
4. Measurement: Money
5. Fractions
6. Place Value
7. Revision

Spanish:

Dinocroc- the Spanish speaking world

Keeping safe and healthy:

RSHE- curriculum plans fully shared with parents before half-term

Assembly Themes & Special Days:

(see assembly timetable)

Science:

Beach habitat

Rockpool creatures – identification

Floating and sinking experiments

Light and dark - shadows

History:

The seaside (now and then) with a focus on Victorian era

Henry Blogg – significant local figure
RNLI hero

Outdoor learning:

Noticing the new season – changes over time
Den building
Pond dipping
Tree plant rubbings
Planting seeds
Harvesting plants

Real-life Maths:

1. Position and direction – seaside
2. Seaside shop (coin recognition)

Topic Title:

I do like to be beside the seaside

Extended Writing:

Postcard writing
Diary writing

Geography:

What is the seaside? (human and physical geographical vocabulary)

Name and locate UK surrounding seas

Art/D&T:

Drawing and painting rockpool creatures

Create a seaside scene

Music:

Listen to, learn and perform various seaside tunes
Charanga- zoo time

Computing:

Using email safely (Purple Mash suite)

English:

Stories set in familiar settings
The Lighthouse Keeper's Lunch (Grammar – CFFS, time conjunctions)

Instructions

Read and write various instructions (Grammar –imperative verbs)

Poetry

Seaside poetry

Spelling: Individualised spellings from High Frequency Words.

Big Writing Genres: (as above)

R.E

Multifaith covered last half-term

P.E

Athletics
Multi-skills

Beautiful Work (Berger)
Writing for an External Audience