Newsletter
9th June 2022

Dear Parents,

The children enjoyed a lovely day on the Friday before half-term to celebrate the Queen's Jubilee. They took part in a number of themed art activities and also an afternoon tea. There are some pictures elsewhere in the newsletter.

Two teams of children from our school also took part in a schools cricket tournament at Eaton Park. Both teams recorded some successes and we are continuing to develop their cricket in school at lunchtimes and in PE lessons this half-term. This week we have also been joined by our lunchtime sports coach, Ollie. He will be in school from Tuesdays-Thursdays until the summer, working with all of the children and teaching them some new active games to play.

On Tuesday, the Eagle Owls enjoyed a quite amazing Bake Off event in the school hall. The winners have not been announced yet, and there will be a big gallery of pictures in the newsletter next week, but the judges felt that the standard this year was exceptional right across the class- including an impressive range of both sweet and savoury dishes. The winners will be announced in assembly on Friday. Many thanks to Mrs Awbery and Mrs Graves for their incredible efforts in making it all happen.

School Uniform Policy- Changes for September '22

Thank you to everyone who participated in the school uniform survey last half-term. We have used the feedback to adjust our policy for next year and also carefully considered affordability throughout, in line with the DfE guidance from November.

The results of the school shoes/trainers ballot was a large majority in favour of allowing a choice of either shoes or trainers in school- but with black as an agreed smart colour. Please note this policy will not come into effect until September.

Sports Day- Take 2

The re-arranged date is Thursday June 16th. Same times and details as before.

Hopefully the weather will be more settled next week, as we know that it is an event that lots of the children enjoy.
