

Knowledge Organiser: Once Upon a Time

Science - Habitats

Habitat - where something lives (animal or human).

Woodland - an area with lots of trees, creating lots of shade on the ground.

Lots of different animals live in a woodland habitat >

A fox lives in a den

A badger lives in a sett (underground burrow)

A mole lives in a burrow

An otter lives in a holt

A hare lives in a form

A squirrel lives in a drey

History - Kings and Queens

Monarch - a person who reigns over a kingdom or empire

This is Queen Elizabeth I

She reigned in England and Ireland between 1558-1603

This is Queen Victoria

She reigned in Great Britain and Ireland between 1837 to 1901.

This is a family tree. It shows how family members are linked. It shows who are parents and who are children.

Open the door...

Where's Baby Elephant? By Ali Khodai

'Tony Robinson's Kings and Queens' book

